

Please do not weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. There is no reason for the banking industry to call me to offer services. I know where they are and am capable of contacting them when I need something. Besides, they send me 20 credit card offers a day through the postal service. Enough is enough! Thank you.